IN THE HIGH COURT OF UTTARANCHAL AT NAINITAL

W.P. NO. 1068 (MS) OF 2004

Anand Singh Bhandari ……Petitioner.

Versus

Kumaon University, Nainital
Through its Vice Chancellor
And another. ……Respondents.

Hon'ble Rajesh Tandon, J.

Heard Ms. Dipakshi Joshi counsel for the petitioner and Sri B.D. Upadhyay, counsel for the respondents.

By the present writ petition, the petitioner has prayed for a writ of mandamus commanding the respondents to produce the answer sheet of the petitioner with regard to the B.Ed. Entrance Examination 2004-2005 bearing Roll No. 14957. Further prayer has been made that the said answer sheet can be re-examined by expert examiner.

Briefly stated, the petitioner has appeared in the B.E. Entrance Examination 2004-2005. The case of the petitioner is that he has every hope that he will secure better marks in all the question papers and will be selected for admission in B.Ed. but when the result was declared the petitioner could not get the marks. Present writ petition has been field for getting the scrutiny of the answer sheet.

Counsel for the respondent Sri B.D. Upadhyay has submitted that there is no provision of revaluation and re-examination in professional courses.

However, the petitioner has confined his prayer for disposal of the representation. Let the petitioner may file an application in the form of representation and if such an application is filed, the respondents no. 1 and 2 shall provide the answer sheet and in order to have the transparency in the matter, the same may be examined by the student himself if possible in front of an expert of the subject.

Subject to the aforesaid observation, writ petition is disposed of.
